1. Associate Deputy Director for Science and Technology				Jim -
2. Room 6E45, Headquarters				For your information. You or Evan may get a call shortly either from [redacted] or Gen. Heinz re funding for the Japanese machine translation project. They have discovered that the project is unfunded for FY-88 and out. As you will recall, it was partially funded by the Agency through OGI through the end of fiscal '86. FBIS and NSA joined together to supply enough money to carry the project through fiscal '87. FBIS' share was $75K and NSA's was $125K. We have proposed various new initiatives since FY-87 that would include funding for machine translation, but at the moment no funding is proposed until FY-90 and there are no guarantees that that new initiative will get in the final program. 25X1 [redacted]
